2024-2025 ACADEMIC YEAR

LIFE SKILLS AND SELF DISCOVERY

Life Skills development was seamlessly integrated across core program activities, strengthening scholars' communication, collaboration, and self-advocacy skills through the storytelling and writing workshop, speaking engagement series, group project, and SEL sessions.

HEALTH AND WELLBEING

Students participated in a four-day "Building a Healthier You" workshop with Dr. Nicole Arkadie that promoted physical and mental well-being by fostering healthy relationships and effective coping skills. In addition, lead staff member Shannon Ryan, an MSW student and CSUSB Renaissance Scholars alum, facilitated two SEL workshops focused on creating safe spaces, building healthy coping strategies, and strengthening time management and self-efficacy.

CAREER EXPLORATION

Students participated in a business and entrepreneurship speaking series featuring local entrepreneurs who shared their experiences and insights. The series was designed to expose students to the world of business while reinforcing essential life skills such as communication, problem-solving, and adaptability—skills that will support them in any career path they choose.

LEADERSHIP AND SELF ADVOCACY

Leadership and advocacy development were intentionally woven throughout program activities, including the storytelling and writing workshop, the speaking engagement series, and the collaborative group project, providing students with meaningful opportunities to strengthen their voice, confidence, and teamwork skills.

COLLEGE READINESS

CSUSB Campus Engagement included a two-week residential stay in the Coyote Village dorms, giving students the opportunity to experience on-campus living and access student amenities such as the pool, bowling lanes, and affinity centers. Scholars also participated in a full CSUSB campus tour, as well as a field trip and campus tour at USC, expanding their exposure to university environments. Additionally, students engaged in a four-day Storytelling and Writing Workshop designed to empower them to share their personal narratives while strengthening written and verbal communication, public speaking, and self-advocacy skills. By the end of the workshop, students produced an outline or draft they can use for personal statements and personal insight questions on college applications.
